Cancer Survivors Celebrate Gathering

GALION - On October 23, 2006 the Galion Community Hospital Auxiliary will host their annual Cancer Survivor's Gathering. "We welcome everyone who is surviving cancer and ask them to attend," stated Della Kaple, Volunteer Coordinator for the hospital. "You do not have to have had treatment at Galion Community Hospital to participate," she explained. She added that the event is not limited to those at a particular stage of cancer, but is open to those coping with all phases and types of cancer.

The dining room of the hospital is the site for this year's gathering with an after-dinner dessert bar being featured. Survivors are encouraged to bring a guest. Fellowship begins at 6:30 p.m. Although there is no fee to attend, invitees are asked to make reservations before October 20, 2006 by calling (419) 468-0727 and leaving a message.
